

The background of the slide is a photograph of a large aircraft carrier, likely an Arleigh Burke-class destroyer, sailing on the ocean. The ship is viewed from a high angle, showing its deck with several aircraft parked. The word "REVELATION" is superimposed on the top half of the image in large, 3D, block letters. The letters have a blue-to-red gradient and a metallic, reflective texture.

“Come, let us make bricks and burn

brick for stone, and they used tar

Herodotus

“... he conducted the river by a channel into the lake ... and so he made the former course of the river passable by the sinking of the stream.

When this had been done, the Persians who had been posted for this very purpose entered by the bed of the river Euphrates into Babylon, ... those Babylonians who dwelt in the middle did not know that they had been captured ...”

Cyrus Cylinder

James Prichart (ANET)

Without any battle ... sparing Babylon ... any calamity ... I am Cyrus ... king of Babylon ... When I entered Babylon...under jubilation and rejoicing ... troops walked around Babylon ... in peace, I did not allow anybody to terrorize (any place) of the [country of Sumer] and Akkad. I strove for peace in Babylon ... and in all his (other) sacred cities ...

I (also) gathered all their (former) inhabitants and returned (to them) their habitations. Furthermore, I resettled... unharmed, in their (former) chapels, the places which make them happy. May all the gods whom I have resettled in their sacred cities ask daily Bel and Nebo for a long life for me ... all of them I resettled in a peaceful place ... I endeavoured to fortify/repair their dwelling places . . .
